

“It was a pleasure having Christy Whitman speak at our university. Christy did a great job of getting her message across to our students. She had a very dynamic power point presentation. Her books are great resources for any one to use in dealing with this difficult issue.” Mark Stone Director of Student Activities and Orientation Central Methodist University